

A Development Practitioner's Guide to The Learning Hub

Open access learning to strengthen civil society and further sustainable development

What is The Learning Hub?

The Learning Hub is a free, online, multilingual platform offering hundreds of educational resources developed by the Aga Khan Foundation and its global partners

akflearninghub.org

Themes include:

Agriculture and Food Security

Civil Society
Strengthening

Climate
Resilience

Early Childhood
Development

Education

Health and Nutrition

Work and Enterprise

You'll find 450+ learning resources:

- Professional development and CPD-accredited courses
- Video-based and blended learning courses
- Instructional videos and toolkits
- Immersive 360-degree videos
- Podcasts and webinars
- Resources in 25+ languages

Up-skill, cross-skill, and re-skill!

- Learn independently - or learn with others
- Anytime, anywhere
- At your own pace
- For free

Who is The Learning Hub for?

- New or growing CSOs looking to build and certify core skills
- Professionals seeking SDG-aligned learning
- Field staff and volunteers
- HR and learning professionals seeking access to a low-cost Learning Management System and/or high-quality training resources
- Independent learners

The Learning Hub was developed by practitioners for practitioners.

You'll find FREE, ready-to-use resources for:

- Continuing Professional Development (CPD)
- Cross-disciplinary and real-world learning
- SDG-aligned teaching and learning
- Personalised cohorts
- Community engagement

How can you use The Learning Hub?

There are many ways to use Learning Hub resources in your work, but here are just a few:

Strengthen core skills

Access a comprehensive suite of free video-based and blended learning courses, including CPD-accredited courses, to build core skills in:

- Strategy and planning
- Resource mobilisation
- Financial and operations management
- Communication and partnerships
- Monitoring and evaluation
- Diversity and inclusion

Strengthen your organisation's programmes

- Integrate existing learning resources into your programmes
- Collaborate with us to localise and adapt existing learning resources to your context
- Partner with us to co-create new high-quality learning content using our a low-cost model
- Engage us to deliver blended learning courses to your staff, partners, and beneficiaries

Deepen technical skills

Access localised, practical resources that combine local knowledge with global best practice:

- Regenerative farming techniques for climate adaptation
- Learning-through-play resources for kids, caregivers, educators
- Community-led approaches to improving family nutrition
- Entrepreneurship and financial literacy for sustainable livelihoods

And many more!

Join our global learning community

- Use and share Learning Hub resources to strengthen your team and projects
- Collaborate with us to co-create or localise learning content for your context
- Contact us to discuss your bespoke training needs, or other ideas for collaboration and partnership
- Become a Learning Hub champion to help us strengthen our sector!

We want to hear from you!

Your stories can inspire others.

Tell us how you're using resources from The Learning Hub in your work.

Email us: thelearninghub@akdn.org

Stay connected

 Join the newsletter

 LinkedIn

THE
LEARNING
HUB

Opening the doors of opportunity to everyone
akflearninghub.org